

HAWAII ADMINISTRATIVE RULES
TITLE 19
DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION
CHAPTER 42
VESSEL AND HARBOR CONTROLS

SUBCHAPTER 2
SMALL CRAFT AND SMALLER COMMERCIAL VESSELS

§19-42-35 Offer of temporary mooring permit valid only seven days; notification of intention; acceptance. (a) An applicant for a temporary mooring permit to moor in a temporarily vacant berth who has been offered the use of a berth shall, within seven days after the offer notify the department of any intention to accept or decline the offer. If the offer is declined, an applicant's application for a temporary mooring permit shall be void and the berth shall be offered to the next senior applicant.

(b) An applicant who has notified the department of an intention to accept the offer shall accept by (1) securing a temporary mooring permit for use of the offered berth within seven days after the date of offer; and (2) otherwise complying with the requirements of these rules and (3) moving the vessel into the assigned berth within seven days after the date of the offer. Failure to comply renders the application, the offer, and the notion of intention to accept void. [Eff 5/20/82; am and comp 2/26/96] (Auth: HRS §§266-2, 266-3) (Imp: HRS §§266-2, 266-3)
