RULES FOR USAGE OF KALANIANAOLE HWY HIGH OCCUPANCY VEHICLE (HOV)
CONTRA-FLOW LANE

1. The HOV placard is valid for one calendar year (January 1 – December 31). All permits approved for the calendar year expires on December 31.
2. The applicant shall apply for a new HOV placard at the end of every calendar year. Please allow two (2) weeks from when the Department of Transportation receives application to mail out new HOV placard.
3. The HOV placard must be visible in the right corner of the windshield.
4. Driver / permittee of a vehicle displaying HOV placard must reside on the east-bound, oceanside of Kalanianaole Highway between West Halemaumau Street and Ainakoa Avenue, and have no traffic signalized access onto Kalanianaole Highway.
5. The HOV placard is not transferable. HOV placard shall match vehicle license plate. Any change in vehicle will require driver / permittee to submit a new application for that vehicle.
6. If questioned by a police officer, the driver / permittee shall surrender the HOV placard to the officer for verification of qualification.
7. The driver / permittee shall forfeit the HOV placard to the attending police officer if he / she fails to abide by the rules / instructions.
8. Driver must comply with all applicable traffic rules and regulations of the Traffic Codes.
9. Driver must obey all traffic control devices.
10. Driver shall stay within the coned lane.
11. Once in the contra-flow lane, driver must stay in the lane until the exit at Ainakoa Avenue. Exiting the contra-flow lane at any other location is not allowed.
