Who May Obtain a Hawaii Driver History Record?

- Any person may ask to know whether there is a record on him or her, and may obtain a copy of the record if one exists. The driver history record may be requested in-person at a location provided below or by mail.
- A motor carrier or prospective motor carrier (or other Employer) may request a driver's driver history record, provided the request is made by the driver in person or notarized. The mailed results of the driver history record check will be sent only to the current or prospective motor carrier. If no motor carrier is named on the form or it is changed, the request will not be processed. "Motor carrier" means any person who owns a motor vehicle used in, or engages in the transportation of persons or property by motor vehicle on the public highways in the furtherance of any commercial, industrial, or educational enterprise.

A Driver History Record Shows

- The name, date of birth, and mailing address of the driver.
- The driver's license class, endorsements, and restrictions.
- The current status and expiration date of the driver's license.
- Crashes, moving traffic violations, failures to appear, and suspensions or revocations of the driver's license, including those from other states.
- Information reported within the past three-years from the date of the inquiry and suspensions and revocation over five-years old that are still in effect. Information may include older information.

How to Request a Driver History Record

To request a copy of your own record (in-person). Complete Part I, show your identification, and pay the $9.00 fee. Acceptable identification documents include a valid driver's license, state identification card, passport, or military identification card.

To request the record of your current or prospective driver. Complete this form, including the notarization, and pay the $9.00 fee. Attach a self-addressed stamped envelope for return of the requested information.

To order a driver history record by mail. Your request MUST BE NOTARIZED to certify identity. Mail completed form with cashier's check or money order made payable to: District Court. Attach a self-addressed stamped legal-sized envelope (#10) for return of the requested information. Mailed requests will be processed and returned within 5-10 days.
